CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY OF INFORMATION DURING THE REGISTRATION PROCESS

(In accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR 2016/679)

As of 25 May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679, also known as GDPR, came into force.

The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) replaces the Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC and aims to harmonise privacy laws across Europe in order to enhance the control and rights of EU citizens over their personal data and reform how organisations handle this information.

The General Data Protection Regulation governs the processing of “personal data”, which includes any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (one who can be identified directly or indirectly). This definition refers to a wide range of personal identifiers, which constitute personal data. Such data include, inter alia, the name, ID number, location or eID data, which are linked to the applications of new technology and to the way organisations, businesses, institutions and professionals collect information about people.

Compliance of Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists with GDPR rules

The Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists is responsible for the processing of your personal data in the context of the submission of the consent form attached hereto.

Upon submitting the relevant consent form, the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists will carry out any operation or series of operations to process your data for the purpose of registration, review of applications as well as the forwarding of your personal data.

In this context, it can also process any other data that you may disclose in the future either orally or by any other means, written or electronic.

Please read this Notice carefully to learn more about how we collect, store, use, transfer and protect the information/personal data we receive.

It should be noted that both your registration in the Council's Register and your personal data are kept in the records of the Council and the Registration Council may process your data where necessary. The processing of your personal data is based on the express consent you give us via the consent form at this stage, or at any subsequent stage.

➤ What personal data is collected and how?

The Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists collects and stores information which relates to both personal and sensitive data. The information collected by the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists includes the following:

- Name and surname;
- District;
- Address;
- Age or Date of Birth;

- Sex;
- Telephone number and other contact details and e-mail addresses;
- Qualifications (Degree, Master's degree) etc.;

Information is collected when you submit your application for registration with the Registration Council and during the review, or evaluation, of your application by means of meetings with the Registration Council.

➤ Purpose of collection and processing of Personal Data

The Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists collects information which enable the provision of Speech and Language Therapy services, as well as support, to the individuals concerned. Furthermore, the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists, through the collection of information and meetings, process personal data and channel information of applicants/members to the Ministry of Health, for publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Cyprus, the Cyprus Association of Registered Speech-Language Pathologists and the Radiomarathon Foundation.

*If required for the purpose of the comprehensive practice of the profession, the Registration Council may also forward your personal data to any other external bodies. In addition, and where necessary, the Registration Council may process your personal data to complete and approve your registration with the Register.

➤ Personal Data Protection

The Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists fully complies with the relevant provisions of the new Regulation on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and is committed to protecting your personal data. For this reason, it takes all necessary measures to ensure that personal data is secure and protected.

All personal data of interested parties is kept in separate files maintained by the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists within its premises and is not accessible to third parties.

You are notified that your personal contact details (telephone number, email address etc.) may be held by the secretarial staff for scheduling, meeting arrangements or filing purposes.

The Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists will process your personal data for the duration of your registration, while thereafter your personal data files will be archived and kept in locked filing cabinets within the Council's premises.

In the event that a member is requested to be struck off from the Council's Register, then the file relating to that member will be destroyed immediately.

➤ Confidentiality of Information

As mentioned above, the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists is committed to protecting and safeguarding the personal data of its applicants/ members in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

However, according to the Regulation, the processing of personal data is considered lawful where it is necessary to protect an interest that is essential for the life of the data subject or that of another natural person. Please also be advised that in accordance with the Rules of Conduct for Professional Speech and Language Therapists, confidentiality of information may be lifted in cases where there is abuse and/or, in the case of child abuse and neglect, where an individual poses a serious threat to others or is at risk of harming themselves.

➤ What are your rights in relation to the processing of your data?

You have the right to:

- be informed of the data kept by the Registration Council;
- rectify any inaccurate or incomplete personal information;
- withdraw some or all of your consent at any time to the use of your personal information by the Registration Council;
- request that your personal information be erased by the Registration Council;
- lodge a complaint with the national supervisory authority if you believe that your personal data has been processed unlawfully.

Any request relating to the access, rectification, modification and/or erasure of your personal data processed by the Cyprus Registration Council of Speech-Language Pathologists can be sent in writing by letter to info@strc.org.cy.

If you consider that the protection of your personal data is in any way compromised, you have the right to appeal to the Data Protection Authority.

Yours respectfully,

The CYPRUS REGISTRATION COUNCIL OF SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGISTS
